

short courses, apprenticeships, health & safety, business & admin, supervisors & management, health & social care, fork-lift, nvqs, ict.

www.sigta.co.uk

Health & Safety Awareness

Employers are required to provide whatever information, instruction, training and supervision is necessary to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety at work of their employees.

This course introduces many aspects of the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 and is intended help raise safety standards and awareness. By the end of the course, delegates will know how to manage safety effectively.

Course Content

- The Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974
- Employer and employee responsibilities
- Definition of key terms such as accident, hazard and risk
- Hazards in the workplace
- Competent persons
- Safe systems of work
- Controlling harmful substances
- Recording the findings of an assessment and preparing an action plan
- Accident investigation and reporting

Learning Objectives

- To have an understanding of Health & Safety legislation
- To define key terms such as accident, hazard and risk
- To identify hazards in the workplace and those affected
- To state accident prevention techniques
- To explain the stages of risk assessment and detail examples of risk
- To know how to actively monitor and review workplace health and safety

Course Duration

0.5 Day - 1 Day, depending on requirements

Booking & Enquiries

Telephone: 01273 416989

Email: sales@sigta.co.uk

*SIGTA Ltd, Abinger Road, Portslade, East Sussex BN41 1RZ
Tel: 01273 416989 Fax: 01273 423982 E: sales@sigta.co.uk*